JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Ralph Kenneth Deleon, is hereby committed on Count 1, 3 and 5 of the Second Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 300 months. This term consists of 180 months on Count 1, and 300 months on each of Counts 3 and 5, all to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of Life. This term consists of Life on each of Counts 1 and 3, and five years on Count 5 of the Second Superseding Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02.
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
4. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
5. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
7. During the period of supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
8. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Office.
9. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
10. The defendant shall not associate with anyone known to him to be a member of Al Qaeda, the Taliban, or any affiliated organizations and others known to him to be participants in Al Qaeda, the Taliban, or any affiliated organization's criminal activities. He may not wear, display, use or possess any insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidence affiliation with Al Qaeda, the Taliban, or any affiliated organizations and may not display any signs or gestures that defendant knows evidence affiliation with Al Qaeda, the Taliban or any affiliated organizations.

USA vs. (2) RALPH KENNETH DeLEON

11. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to him to be a location where members of Al'Qa'ida or the Taliban and any affiliated organization meet or assemble.
12. The defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office located at: United States Court House, 3470 Twelfth Street, Plaza Street Level, Riverside, CA 92501

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

On Government's motion, the underlying indictment, first superseding indictment, and Counts Two and Four of the second superseding indictment, ORDERED dismissed.
